Apologies

Mike Dove (MD), Gary Murton (GM),

The Chairman addressed the meeting and tendered his resignation as Member of the Management Committee and Chairman with immediate effect.

He cited the following reasons for the decision.

1. Excessive workload
2. Following on from that, a lot of time had been spent dealing with Clubs not accepting decisions made by the Committee.
3. More active people were needed on the Committee

CR then wished the League and Committee all the best for the future and left the meeting.

There then followed a full and open discussion about the way forward.

DG agreed to be Interim Chairman up to the General Meeting in November.

Various experienced people to be approached to become members of the Committee. RG
