

CHERWELL CRICKET LEAGUE – DISCIPLINARY & CONDUCT REGULATIONS 2025.

These regulations follow the processes and guidelines set out in the ECB Recreational Conduct Regulations 2025 and cover both on-field and off-field offences.

Cricketers will be subject to on-field conduct obligations mirroring the Laws of Cricket and other participants present at matches (e.g. coaches, officials and representatives of other cricket organisations acting in an official capacity at the match) will be subject to more limited on-field conduct obligations.

All participants will be subject to off-field conduct obligations which either relate to their participation in recreational cricket or occur outside their direct participation but are of a sufficiently serious nature to justify disciplinary action being taken in relation to recreational cricket.

CONDUCT OBLIGATIONS - On and around the field of play

Players and club officials shall not make any public or media comment which is detrimental to the League, clubs, umpires, fellow players or the game in general. In this instance, media shall include press, radio, television, external websites, Cherwell League website including Match and Captain's reports, club websites, social networking sites and club match programmes

1. Any cricketer shall be in breach of these RCR, at the relevant level of offence detailed below, if they do not conduct themselves fairly and properly on and around the field of play and otherwise in accordance with the Laws of Cricket or the Spirit of Cricket. Such conduct which will result in a breach of these RCR shall include any misconduct of a cricketer on any match day as specified in Law 42 of the Laws of Cricket, or Law 4.1 Responsibility of captains. It should be noted these are guidelines only and may not be comprehensive:- namely:

 - (d) making an obscene gesture;

- (b) act in a manner contrary to the ECB's Anti-Discrimination Regulations; or
- (c) conduct themselves in a manner or act in a manner which is improper, or which may be prejudicial to the interests of cricket, or which may bring the ECB, the game of cricket or any cricketer or group of cricketers into disrepute.

3. Any coach, match official or Club Official shall be in breach of these RCR if they fail to conduct themselves fairly and properly at any part of the cricket ground on any match day. Conduct which is not fair and proper and will therefore result in a breach of these RCR shall be reported to either umpire, in which case the umpire may make a Disciplinary Report, or the umpire may direct the individual to make the report to the Disciplinary Officer directly by way of Written Complaint (for example, if the On-Field Breach relates to a match official). If there is no umpire appointed to a particular match, individuals can report On-Field Breaches to a captain or Club Official who can then make a Disciplinary Report on their behalf.

Conduct which is not fair and proper and will therefore result in a breach of these Regulations will include, but not be limited to:

CONDUCT OBLIGATIONS - Captain/Team responsibility

4. If any cricketer commits two or more breaches of Regulation 1 or 2 (Conduct obligations on and around the field of play), which take place during or immediately before or after a match, when playing for the same Club in a season it shall automatically be a separate offence of failing to ensure that the relevant cricketers have complied with their obligations for each of:

- (a) Any person who captained the team in each of the relevant match(es); and
- (b) The Club the cricketer was playing for.

5. Clubs will also be held responsible for disorderly behaviour at any part of the cricket ground on any match day by their members and spectators, unless they can show that:

- (a) they took adequate steps to ensure that their members and spectators behaved in an orderly fashion; and/or
- (b) they did not or could not control entry to that part of the cricket ground by the relevant spectators and it would therefore not be fair for them to be held responsible.

CONDUCT OBLIGATIONS - Off-field conduct

6. A Participant shall be in breach of these RCR if they commit any misconduct as set out below which either relates to their participation in Recreational Cricket and/or is of a sufficiently serious nature to justify disciplinary action being taken in relation to their participation in Recreational Cricket:

 - (i) fixing the result, progress, conduct or any aspect of a match;

 - (iv) receiving a custodial sentence for any of the activities described in (a)-(c) or
 - (v) failing to comply with any decisions or sanctions validly imposed on them following due process as prescribed by these RCR.

7. A Club shall be in breach of these Regulations if, at any time, it:

- (a) fails to take reasonable steps to ensure the good behaviour and conduct of their Participants for any breach of these Regulations; and/or
- (b) knowingly permits a cricketer, who is suspended as a result of a previous breach of these Regulations, to play in any match or competition; and/or

PROCESS

8. Umpires shall report any On-Field Breaches or Off-Field Breaches which occur on or around the field of play to the Cherwell Cricket League Umpires' Co-ordinator or his appointed deputy, within 24 hours, irrespective of any action the umpire may have taken on the field of play.

9. Other individuals can also report On-Field Breaches or Off-Field Breaches:

- (a) to the umpire, in which case the umpire shall report it to the Cherwell Cricket League;
- (b) to a captain or Club Official, if there is no umpire appointed to a particular match, who shall report it to the Cherwell Cricket League; or
- (c) to the Cherwell Cricket League directly.

10. A Relevant Disciplinary Body may become aware of, and may consider, a potential or alleged breach of these Regulations without an umpire or an independent individual having reported the matter to the Relevant Disciplinary Body.

11. The Cherwell Cricket League must ensure that any disciplinary processes conducted under these RCR comply with the following requirements:

- (a) The Cherwell Cricket League shall appoint a Disciplinary Officer (or Disciplinary Officers) in respect of each case.
- (b) The Disciplinary Officer shall decide whether to charge the relevant Participant with a breach of these RCR, having conducted any further investigation they consider necessary.
- (c) The report(s) will be forwarded to the Secretary of the offending club for their and/or the Participant(s) response including any actions the offending club have or will be taking along with any comments, mitigations or views of the incident(s). The response(s) are to be returned to the Disciplinary Officer within 72 hours of receipt.
- (d) The Disciplinary Officer shall appoint an individual (or group of individuals) to consider the charge
 - (i) on the basis of the written evidence only or
 - (ii) at a hearing.

In either case, the following principles must be complied with:

- (i) The Participant shall be informed who will be making the decision and given the opportunity to object to their appointment on the basis of any conflict of interest.

- (ii) If the charge will be considered at a hearing, the Participant shall be given the opportunity to attend and make representations to the decision-maker(s).
- (iii) The decision-maker(s) may seek further information about the charge from the Participant or the Disciplinary Officer (or any other third party they deem necessary, including the umpire or reporting party) before making a decision.
- (iv) In exceptional cases, the decision-maker(s) may suspend a Participant from participating in cricket until the case has been considered. Before doing so, the decision-maker(s) will consider whether that is appropriate in the circumstances of the case (including the seriousness of the alleged breach and whether the Participant is contesting the charge).
- (v) The decision-maker(s) will consider the charge and determine whether, on the balance of probabilities, there has been a breach of these RCR. A decision made by a group of individuals shall be made on the basis of a majority vote.
- (vi) If there has been a breach of these RCR, the decision-maker(s) will impose a sanction in accordance with the sanction guidelines which appear in Appendix 1.
- (vii) The decision, including any sanction, shall be clearly communicated to the Participant and the Participant's Club as soon as reasonably possible.

12. The Participant shall have the opportunity to appeal any decision. The Cherwell Cricket League must ensure that any appeal processes conducted under these RCR comply with the following requirements:

- (a) Decisions may only be appealed on one of the following grounds:
 - (i) For any Level 1 or Level 2 offence where the decision was made without a hearing, solely on the grounds of mistaken identity;
 - (ii) the decision-maker(s) came to a decision to which no reasonable body could have come;
 - (ii) there was a serious procedural irregularity, which includes the decision-maker(s) not following the principles set out in Regulation 11, which significantly impacted the Participant's rights and caused the decision to be unjust;
 - (iii) there is fresh evidence which could not be presented before the decision was made but is material to the decision; and/or
 - (iv) the sanction imposed was manifestly excessive.
- (b) The Disciplinary Officer shall appoint an individual (or group of individuals) to consider the appeal;
 - (i) on the basis of the written evidence only or
 - (ii) at a hearing.

No individual who has previously been involved with the case shall be appointed to consider the appeal.

- (c) The process for the appeal shall comply with RCR Section 15.
- (d) The decision-maker(s) shall consider the appeal and determine whether, on the balance of probabilities, the appeal shall be allowed (in whole or in part). A decision made by a group of individuals shall be made on the basis of a majority vote.
- (e) If the appeal is allowed, the decision-maker(s) shall decide whether to disapply the sanction previously imposed or issue a new sanction in accordance with the sanctions guidelines which appear in Appendix 1.
- (f) The decision, including any sanction, shall be clearly communicated to the Participant and the Participant's Club as soon as reasonably possible.

REVIEW OF APPEALS

13. If an appeal is dismissed, the Respondent may make a request to the Cricket Regulator under Regulation 16 of the RCR for a Review Panel to be appointed to review the decision of the decision-maker(s) on the appeal.

The sole ground on which such a request can be made is that there was a serious procedural irregularity affecting the decision-maker(s)' decision on the appeal which significantly impacted the Respondent's rights and caused the decision-maker(s)' decision to be unjust (the "Sole Ground of Review").

14. Any request under Regulation 16 of the RCR must be sent to the Recreational Discipline Panel Secretary by email to RecreationalDiscipline@cricketregulator.co.uk within 7 days of receipt by the Respondent of the decision-maker(s)' written decision on the appeal, and must include:

- a. a copy of the decision being challenged;
- b. written reasons explaining how the Sole Ground of Review is satisfied in relation to that decision; and
- c. any other documents or evidence that was submitted to the decision-maker(s) in order for them to reach their decision on the appeal.

15. The Recreational Discipline Panel Secretary will appoint a Review Panel Chair who will confirm within 7 days whether the request under Regulation 16 of the RCR will be accepted. The Review Panel Chair is under no obligation to accept the request, whether on the basis that the Sole Ground of Review is clearly not satisfied, the decision has not been made by decision-maker(s) on behalf of a Relevant Cricket League that falls under the jurisdiction of the ECB or otherwise. If the Review Panel Chair does not accept the request, the decision-maker(s)' decision will stand and there is no further right of review or appeal.

16. If the Review Panel Chair accepts the request, they will follow the RCR process as laid out in sections 18 to 27 of the RCR.

17. Any decision of the Cricket Regulator Review Panel is final and binding, and there is no further right of review or appeal.

REFERRAL OF SERIOUS/COMPLEX CASES

18. If the potential breach of these Regulations is of sufficient complexity, in accordance with Regulation 26 of the RCR, the Disciplinary Officer may request the Cricket Regulator to investigate and prosecute the case on behalf of the Relevant Cricket League. The Disciplinary Officer must provide details of the potential breach to the Cricket Regulator by email to RecreationalDiscipline@cricketregulator.co.uk and the Cricket Regulator will confirm within 7 days whether it will accept the referral. The Cricket Regulator is under no obligation to accept the referral, whether on the basis that the referral does not meet the applicable threshold, has not been submitted by a Relevant Cricket League that falls under the jurisdiction of the ECB or otherwise. If the Cricket Regulator does not accept the referral, the Disciplinary Officer must adopt the process set out in these Regulations.

19. For the purposes of Regulation 28 of the RCR, the following cases will be considered to be of sufficient complexity for the Disciplinary Officer to refer potential breaches to the Cricket Regulator:

- a. allegations of breaches of the ECB's Anti-Discrimination Regulations which are complex and/or at the upper end of the scale of seriousness;
- b. cases with police involvement and/or involving a Reportable Criminal Offence;
- c. cases which require specialist expertise, such as legal or safeguarding expertise; or
- d. cases which do not fall into categories a. to c. above but the Disciplinary Officer nevertheless, considers to be of significant complexity to justify the Cricket Regulator investigating and prosecuting the case, in which case the Cricket Regulator will determine whether the case reasonably requires the involvement of the Cricket Regulator.

Following acceptance of such a referral the Cricket Regulator will carry out such investigations and Determinations as deemed necessary and as set out in sections 30 to 60 of the ECB Recreational Conduct Regulations

MISCELLANEOUS

20. The Cherwell Cricket League will immediately recognise, give effect to and fully enforce any penalties which have been imposed under these RCR, General Conduct Regulations or ECB GCR or the Disciplinary Procedure Regulations and which they have been notified about from any other Relevant Cricket Organisation.
